In The Mystery of Montley's Manor, by Kimberlee R. Mendoza, any one might be guilty of something, but, just what precisely what and how it was done is part of the mystery, as Montley has been "scared to death?" And who's doing the scaring now?

Greed, intrigue, and nasty deeds make up this play performed by the Good-News Players of Clairmont Hills Baptist Church for their fall 2005 dessert theatre.
